

PRISONER OF TEHRAN

Prisoner of Tehran is a collaboration between Motus O and Marina Nemat, based on Nemat's bestselling book. After the Islamic Revolution of 1979, Marina was arrested at the age of sixteen and spent more than 2 years in Evin, a political prison in Tehran. Through dance, theatre and storytelling the show speaks to social justice, oppression, freedom and hope.