

The Little Prince.

Blending dance, theatre, music, video projection and brilliant costumes, MOTUS O re-tells the fable of a small prince on a tiny planet who owns three volcanoes and a proud flower. His interplanetary travels bring him to Earth where he learns, from a fox, what is really important in life. Audience members of all ages will be charmed and intrigued by this unique and delightful performance.

Our story begins with a Pilot who remembers when he had once crashed landed in a desert. It was there that he encountered a most extraordinary person...The Little Prince. This Little Prince lived on a tiny planet, far far away in a corner of the universe with his most treasured companion...the Rose.

MOTUS O's imaginative story telling skillfully portrays this adaptation of the book. With 'pizzazz plus' and boundless energy they jump, twist, crawl and dance their way into your hearts. They lead us all, young and old, into the wonder of discovery, the magic of imagination and the joy of friendship.
